

Today's Student Protest Reminder

A quick reminder to all parents/guardians that the possible Student Walk Out occurring this afternoon is not a board or school sanctioned event. Students who participate may not remain on school grounds as they will not be supervised, and the event goes against our safe schools policy.